

New Manager at Kilima Camp !

We are happy to introduce you the new manager of Kilima Camp:

David Mascall is a Kenyan citizen who for the past thirteen years has been volunteering at the Nairobi Animal Orphanage. During these years he has been mainly responsible for the hand raising and habilitating orphaned lions into a captive environment. These young lions were often orphaned as a result of human / wildlife conflict.

His passion for the "King of the Jungle" is very exceptional and no need to say that his character is as well. You will find in David a very interesting and knowledgeable guest entertainer. Of course, his managerial skills are to be praised and together with the Kilima Camp team, he will make sure you or your guests have an unforgettable stay in the Maasai Mara.

Hope to see you soon at Kilima Camp !!!
